SEWING MACHINE.
We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine, which renders it superior to any other in use:
It forms a flat elastic seam which will not rip in wear.
It is entirely noiseless;
A patented device prevents its being turned backward;
The needle cannot be set wrong;
Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;
It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1862. For particulars, enquire of State Finances.

Last winter during the special session of the Legislature, a joint committee of both Houses was appointed "to examine the books, accounts, cash on hand, etc., of the State Treasurer's office," and report thereon to the Legislative Assembly. The following is the report:

To the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon—The Joint committee appointed to examine into the condition of the treasury department, submit the following report:

The Committee visited the treasurer's office, and examined thoroughly and in detail all the books, vouchers and cash in treasurer's hands. We found the books neat and well kept; each fund separate and distinct, credited with the appropriations as made by law, and charged with the disbursements made therefrom. We examined every fund and compared the vouchers with the disbursements and found them correct in every case, and the balance on hand agreeing with the report submitted by the Secretary of State. We also examined the work performed by the treasurer in preparing, signing and registering the bounty bonds authorized by law. This work alone is far more onerous than the entire duties of the office, prior to that duty being imposed.

This report was signed by the whole committee, consisting of Messrs. Grim, Hovey and Caldwell, on the part of the Senate, and Messrs. Underwood, Bowlby and Lane on the part of the House. It was adopted without a dissenting vote. A few days ago, when speaking of this matter, we stated by mistake, that J. D. Fay was on the committee. The error occurred by reason of our having quoted from recollection, without turning to the record. But though Fay was not a member of the committee which reported as above, he knew none the less that the condition of the State Treasury was not such [as he described in his Dalles speech. He knew that the report of the Secretary of State, made last December, showed a large sum in the Treasury above all present demands, and he knew further that the report of the Treasurer himself, made in February, showed that there was then in the Treasury, and due from counties, nearly one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Besides, he voted for the adoption of the report of the joint committee, which we have given above. Therefore there is no excuse for the statement he made at the Dalles, to the effect that "Governor Gibbs, Secretary May and Treasurer Cooke had bankrupted the State."

Much has been said about the bounty bonds which were issued under the authority of State, and the aggregate amount has been grossly and purposely exaggerated. The entire amount of these bonds, when the whole is issued, will not much exceed the sum of money now in the State Treasury. Except these bonds, the State does not owe a dollar, and if they were now due, there is enough money in the Treasury to redeem all which have been issued. Does it look from this showing that the State has been plundered irretrievably in debt? The Copperheads are circulating this story for political effect, expecting thereby to work on the prejudices of some of the dupes of their party—men who "cannot take two from twenty for their heart, and leave eighteen." The whole political capital which they can command, consists of mendacity, and, it must be owned that, if not adepts in the use of it, they manage to use it uninterruptingly.

The Great Steamer Robbery.

THE MYSTERY EXPLAINED—THE HOBBIES OF COLLECTOR ADAMS ARRESTED—MR. ADAMS VINDICATED AT LAST.

On the 10th of February last, Collector Adams of the District of Oregon, was robbed of $20,500 in gold coin (Government funds,) while on board the steamship Oregon, just prior to her arrival at San Francisco. The paid agents of those who were seeking an opportunity to ruin Mr. Adams, that they might get rid of a man who was known to be the enemy of the whole swarm of smugglers on the Northern coast, and a man, moreover, who was determined to do his duty under the laws, immediately began to howl upon his track, accusing him of being the author of the theft. Several of the newspapers of San Francisco, chief among which was the Alta, a paper infamous for its venality wherever known, were subsidized for this base purpose. Every slander that malignity could invent was put in circulation by these journals to show that Mr. Adams had stolen the government funds. The Copperhead papers of Oregon caught up the refrain and came yelping along the track in their usual way. But these shameless curs are at last confounded. The mystery connected with the robbery has been explained, the parties concerned in it arrested, and a large portion of the money recovered. The Alta which is at last forced to do at least partial justice in the affair, furnishes the following account:

The first parties on whom suspicion fell, in connection with the robbery, were John Lambert alias J. L. Knox, a waiter on the steamer, and Andrew McElroy, alias Wm. Andrew, the porter, both young Englishmen. Lambert was arrested on suspicion, and made a statement concerning the case, which was reduced to writing. He admitted seeing Adams on the steamer, and noticing his trunk; but denied ever having heard of any money being in Adams' possession, and declared that he had only heard of the theft after the robbery after his arrest. It was discharged, as was McElroy, no proof of their complicity being attainable, but both were closely watched, day and night. Lambert soon fell in with an acquaintance by the name of William Fox, of negro minstrel fame, and shortly after, with the young girl, Hattie, or Addie Hall. Fox had no means of his own, and the girl Hall was equally unprovided for, but both came on board the steamer Jenny Lee on her trip to San Juan del Sur, on the 25th of March, and the detectives came to the conclusion that Lambert was in their company, and furnishing the funds for the trip to New York. When the steamer was ready to leave her wharf, they searched her from end to end for Lambert, but he had been securely hidden by his landlady's two daughters, and not a trace of him could be found. Soon after the vessel had gone, the detectives became satisfied that he had really left in her, and that he carried at least a portion of the plunder with him. Capt Lees thereupon sent to full account of the affair, by Portland Mail, to Superintendent Kennedy, of the Metropolitan Police, New York, and at the same time forwarded the following dispatch by telegraph

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26, 1866
John A. Kennedy, Supt. Met. Police, N. Y.—Arrest John Lambert Knox; stole $20,000 in coin from Collector Adams of Government funds. Left on steamer Jenny Lee March 25th, via Nicaragua. Description—English, age 25, height 5 feet 7, hair brown, thin light moustache, but one upper front tooth, oval face, inclines to chin, light complexion, occupation waiter on steamers. Hattie Hall and Billy Fox, negro minstrels are in company. Search them and baggage. New York address of Knox, 672 Sixth avenue. Letter by mail March 10th. Answer if arrested. I. W. LEES, Capt Detective Police.

The answer to this dispatch came in the following form

NEW YORK, 13th April, 1866
Capt. Isaiah W. Lees, Detective Police.—I have arrested John Lambert Knox, Addie Hall, and William Fox, and found in their possession four thousand four hundred dollars in gold, fifteen thousand seven hundred dollars in mining companies' stock, and three hundred dollars in bills. I will try to hold them until you send for them. I will retain possession of the funds and stock against receipt as if received to-day. JOHN A. KENNED

Road from Lewiston to Virginia City

It will be remembered that the last Congress appropriated $50 000 for the building of a road over the shortest and most practicable route from Lewiston Idaho Territory, to Virginia City, Montana. This money has not yet been expended, nor indeed has an exploration of the country, with a view to locating the road, yet been made. The work is now, however, to be commenced. The Secretary of the Interior has appointed Dr W Bird, of Iowa, to make an examination of the country, to locate the road and to expend the money appropriated for its construction. Dr Bird arrived here by the steamship Montana on Saturday evening, and in a few days will proceed to Lewiston to commence the work. Some time will necessarily be consumed in ascertaining the best route for the road; but as soon as this is done, the money appropriated by Congress will be used at once as far as it will go, in building it. Dr Bird will remain, acting in the capacity of Superintendent and Disbursing Agent until the road is completed, or the appropriation expended.

As all know, the country between the points which it is proposed to unite by this road is about as mountainous as any part of the continent. It will be difficult to find a direct route for a practicable road, and we are of opinion that the sum appropriated by Congress will not be sufficient for the completion of the work. Throughout the whole extent of country between Lewiston and Virginia City, mountains are thrown in and piled about without much regard to any system, and not forming continuous chains, as in other places. The country looks as if old Hesiod's battle of the giants, wherein the enraged deities hurled mountains at one another, might have occurred there. To make a good wagon road through that mountainous region will require a large outlay of money, but the road when once finished, will be of great use to Oregon, as well as to the Territories adjoining. As will be seen by referring to the map, this road will take nearly a direct line from the head of navigation on the Columbia, while other routes make a vast circuit to reach the gold fields of Montana.

State Items.

There are most unmistakable signs of prosperity at present, at Oregon City. In addition to the manufacturing interests, which are already very considerable, and to be greatly increased during the coming season, there are now under way more buildings and other improvements than we remember to have seen there for a good many years. Oregon City is making its way, surely, to a prominent position among the towns of this coast.

A stone-ware pottery will soon be in operation at the town of Buena Vista, Polk county. This flourishing little place which a year ago had but two little stores and a warehouse, with two or three families, has now over thirty buildings, including a steam saw mill, built by Messrs. George & Beach, who are also putting up a flouring mill; three stores, a blacksmith shop, a wagon shop and a sash and door factory. It is surrounded by one of the best agricultural sections of the Willamette valley.

The Corvallis college opened its second session on the 16th, with seventy-five students and a prospect of a considerable increase in numbers.

The Union Convention of Benton county is to meet at Corvallis on Saturday, May 12th.

The Gazette says the Sunday Schools of Corvallis are going to celebrate May Day unitedly. The Lodge of Good Templars of that place will also celebrate.

THE GOOD OLD TIMES.—A good many years ago, when Democratic threats and Democratic bullies were more potent than now—when the favorite argument by which the "chivalry" drove measures through Congress or drove them out of Congress, was, "We'll dissolve the Union!"—one day of those good old times when Democrats had all the post offices, a bill introduced by Mr Clay had been defeated in the Senate, Mr. Foote, of Mississippi rose in intense excitement; and exclaimed, "Mr. President, this Republic ceases to exist by noon to-morrow." Mr. Corwin, who was opposed to the measure, and was greatly rejoiced at its defeat, gravely left his seat, and walking over to Mr. Foote's chair, said "Mr. Foote, did I understand you to say that our Government would cease to exist by noon to-morrow?" "Yes sir." "Well Foote, I am deeply grieved to hear you make that announcement. I have several bills before Congress that I am exceedingly interested in. Now, couldn't you, just to gratify me, have this final end adjourned over, say two weeks?" Foote was extinguished in the laughter that broke out from the Senators sitting near.

MILITARY MATTERS.—The following is the substance of Special Orders, Nos 23 and 26, recently issued from the Headquarters of the Military Division of the Pacific

Colonel George A H. Blake, First United States Cavalry, will report, with the detachment of recruits under his command, to the Commanding General Department of California.

The Commanding General Department of California will designate four companies of the First United States Cavalry for the assignment to the Department of the Columbia. Two of them will be immediately filled up with recruits, and sent by steamer, without horses, to Fort Vancouver, W T, to report to Major General Steele. The other two companies will receive their proportionate share of recruits, and will await further orders.

The two companies of 1st U S. Cavalry, assigned to the Department of the Columbia, will be immediately mounted and equipped in the Department of California, and will march through the State of Nevada, via Camp McDermitt, to Oregon. Immediately after crossing the dividing line of these States, they will report for orders to Major General Steele, or such officer as he may designate. In default of further instructions one company will proceed to Camp Lyon, and the other to Camp Henderson, or Camp Alvord, as deemed best for procuring supplies and for protecting the route of travel from Indian hostilities. The time of moving and the routes of travel will be so arranged as to afford all possible protection to the early emigrant and freight trains en route to Idaho.

By order of Major General Halleck
ROBERT N SCOTT
Assistant Adjutant General

ARGUMENTATIVE.—The Herald of April 16th has a column article of the most striking and most logical argumentation we ever saw in that paper. The article relates to a statement made in the Oregonian to the effect that the Herald predicted a collision between the President and Congress of an entirely different character from that of a difference of opinion. That was settled by the conclusive "Let Mr Pittock argument. The versatility of the Herald was shown in the second argument which was varied to "Mr Pittock you lie. The third was still more to the point and read "Henry L Pittock lies." The fourth 50th, and sixth astounded us by their depth and profundity. They culminated in a grand thrilling climax utterly and absolutely overwhelming. It comes thundering upon poor Pittock like an avalanche of rocks from a mountain. Read it Henry L. Pittock! State Printer of Oregon!! you are a pitiful shadow. Ryder on Line!!

Such arguments are unanswerable. We are really sorry for the poor Oregonian. After fifteen years of success to be thus annihilated by a single argument of a paper that has existed but 28 days is a little too bad. We must say the Herald shows talent.—Vancouver Register.

Spite of the swelling, thundering rhetoric of the recalcitrant Herald, the OREGONIAN is still published daily and weekly in Portland at the usual rates.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO APRIL 20.

A Fearful Explosion at Aspinwall

NEW YORK April 20.—The steamer Arizona has arrived from Aspinwall. A fearful explosion occurred on the steamer Europeas at Aspinwall on the 5th instant, destroying the ship and four hundred feet of the wharf. The supposed cause was nitro glycerine. Almost fifty persons were killed, among them the captain and officers.

Seizure of Nitro-Glycerine.

NEW YORK April 20.—Fire Marshal Baker under the instructions of Mayor Hoffman to-day seized about three hundred pounds of nitro glycerine stowed up two or three quantities in a cabin ship in the harbor and arrested Colton for furnishing or shipping a quantity of the same to Calif rnia that exploded there 11 January caused by the explosion at Aspinwall is estimated at one million of dollars. The office of the Lorillard Insurance Company in this city estimates the loss of that company at one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The nitro glycerine was shipped on board the Arizona by Gilman Co, Liverpool, and consigned to Thos Hedley, agent Adams Express Co Wells Fargo & Co obtained a writ of replevin and took it from the ship. The Hedley agent refused to give up the property without this writ. Colton is said to have arrived at Aspinwall a week ago from Hamburg. At that time the authorities did not know the dangerous nature of the article and it was placed in a public store. The whole amount seized has been placed in a safe manner where there can be no possibility of an explosion, although a large quantity in the future. No nitro glycerine will be hereafter admitted in any of the public stores. Col Burnhamler was formerly commander in an Ohio regiment.

Miscellaneous News.

CHICAGO, April 20.—The reported death of Ole Bull which has caused most extensive obituary notices is now denied, and it is stated that he is not in the country.

The meeting of the Canadian Parliament is postponed till June.

WASHINGTON April 20.—The House passed a bill, ayes 130 noes 18 giving J Day, of Baltimore county, Maryland an annuity of $121 50, for services in defending the national flag against Gilmore and rebel raiders in July, 1864. It appeared that he was 74 years old, and defended the flag while the rebels in retaliation destroyed his property valued at $7 000 or $8 000.

The rewards for the arrest of Booth are divided as follows. Capt. Dougherty, of the 16th New York Cavalry, $7 500, Lieut Conger and L D Baker $4 000 each; Detective General L C Baker $3,700, Boston Corbett, $5,000 the privates of the 16th New York Cavalry, about $2,000 each.

CINCINNATI, April 20.—The New York Steamer killed the Broadway underground railroad bill, and also the cross town railroad bill. This is understood to foreshadow the death of the whole batch of New York street railroad bills. The Legislature passed the ship canal bill, amended so as to kill it, by providing that the act shall not go into effect until after the enlargement of the Erie and Oswego Canals.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

The San Francisco Explosion—Verdict of Coroner's Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20 —6 o'clock, P M.—The Coroner's jury found a verdict that Samuel Knight and other victims of the explosion, came to their death on Monday last, by the explosion of nitro-glycerine, shipped in a wooden box from New York, to W H Mills, Los Angeles, by express. The said box arrived in a leaky condition, and had no marks to indicate the character of the contents. That this nitro glycerine is a highly dangerous and very explosive compound, as appears from the testimony of experts, exploding not only from concussion and percussion but from spontaneous combustion. That it is an article which should not be shipped by sea vessels especially on such a voyage as that from New York, and that the party shipping this particular box murdered, was guilty of a crime equal to manslaughter. They urge the indictment and punishment of the shipper if he can be found. They exonerate the Pacific Mail Company and Wells, Fargo & Co, from blame in this particular instance, but condemn the practice of express companies and other carriers in endangering human life by receiving without inquisition, packages the contents of which they have no knowledge. The same verdicts were returned in each case.

The steamer Oregon sails for Victoria to-morrow morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21st.—No Eastern news to-day. The motion for an injunction on behalf of the California State Telegraph Company vs James Hamilton et al of the United States Pacific Telegraph Company, was argued at great length before Judge Pratt to-day. Carpenter and H H. Haight appeared for plaintiff and Hall McAllister for defendants. The plaintiffs claim the recent act of the Legislature, granting to the opposition telegraph line permission to transact business between Stockton, Sacramento, Marysville and this city is illegal as it impairs the obligations of a contract entered into by the State Telegraph Company and the State under the act of 1862. The defendants contend that the privilege of doing business is necessary to the successful carrying on of the proposed new line as were the acts in 14, and like the act of 1862 and by agreement of counsel the case is to be submitted on the pleadings.

The Pacific Mail steamer Golden City, Captain Dall, arrived at this port on the 18th from Hong Kong. At that time the authorities did not know the dangerous nature of the article and it was placed in a public store. The whole amount seized has been placed in a safe manner where there can be no possibility of an explosion, although strong guards will be kept on the property in the future. No nitro glycerine will hereafter admitted in any of the public stores. Col Burnhamler was formerly commander in an Ohio regiment.

The defendants contend that the privilege of doing business is necessary to the successful carrying on of the proposed new line as were the acts in 14, and like the act of 1862 and by agreement of counsel the case is to be submitted on the pleadings. The principle to be determined is, that any one of the proposed new lines can contemplate the present obstacles in the way of opening telegraphic communication with the East, an effect which must be inevitable with a strict construction of the act. Besides the interests involved as between the companies, there were other questions of great public importance as to the powers and duties of Legislatures which are involved in the legal controversy.

Geo. W Tyler was brought before Judge Hoffman today on a bench warrant to plead to the indictment against him for practising law without having first procured a license.

Henry J Johnson captain, and Peter Pierce, first mate of the steamer Del Norte, and Chas. L. Russell, mate of the ship Independence were indicted by the United States Grand Jury for beating seamen on board their vessels.

Thos Summers, a prisoner confined in the county jail for petit larceny, pretended to make an attempt on his life by swallowing, or making believe to swallow, a lot of glass which he had pulverized in his cell.

Dr. Wm. F Woodward died at his residence in this city last evening aged 46 years.

At a meeting of the chamber of commerce, held this afternoon, resolutions were adopted and telegraphed to California delegation at Washington, requesting Congress, under a suspension of rules, to pass an act making it a felony to ship or transport any nitro-glycerine within the United States or on board any American vessels.

Advance of Mining Stocks

The mining share market slightly recovered this morning from the depression incident to most stock yesterday, and at the close a better feeling was apparent. Ophir the leading stock on the list for sometime past, after selling on the street before the opening of the board at $735, advanced to $775@777 50. Chollar Potosi was also in better favor and rallied at the close to $322 500. Yellow Jacket rose from $770 to $790 and was strongly held. Savage was maintained at $1190@1180. Sales of Belcher were made at $340. Other stock shows little or no variation from yesterday's prices.

The Markets

Wool—sales of 58,000 pounds at 19½c, market dull. Wheat firm—sales 1800 sks in lots at $2 40 per 100 pounds. Barley—30@32½c per 100 pounds. Oats—sales brewing 800 sks at 2c, market dull. Potatoes—moderate demand at $1@1 25 per 100 pounds.

Arrived—ship Amethyst, ten days from Bellingham Bay. Sailed—On 21st steamer Oregon, Victoria; brig Hidalgo, Humboldt.

Arizona News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—The steamer California arrived this morning from Victoria with 30 passengers and $110,000 treasure.

The opposition steamer America from San Juan del Sur is now due.

Dates from La Paz, Arizona, up to the 15th were received. Major Miller of the 14th U. S. Infantry and four men were killed by the Indians between San Pedro and Tucson. Dr Turpin was dangerously wounded and temporarily left behind somewhere near a place called the Pinalico. It is said he will not live.

Summary justice was meted out to the man who committed the murder at Fort Yuma. He was taken, tried and hung all in regular form, and without entailing the expense of long detention to the thinly settled country.

The river is in excellent condition now, and rising. We will probably have a heavy flood next May and June.

The weather is delightful at Williams' Fork. The different mining companies are very busy in taking out the rock. The Mineral Hill Company has some 6000 sacks ready for shipment, on the bank of the river.

Mr Thompson Supt of the Great Central is preparing the way for the company's smelting furnaces and to put up two or three mills at Williams' fork.

Weather exceedingly warm. Thermometer 75°.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—The Mexican version of the late fight at Mazatlan is generally believed by the merchants engaged in the coast trade though the French are striving hard to discredit it.

Frank Morris, second clerk of the Union Club, died last night from the effects of the late explosion. This is the twelfth victim known to be dead.

A report gained currency in this city yesterday that the British steamer Grenadian plying between Southampton and Aspinwall, became line with the European is due and has not yet arrived, and that facts in connection with late entanglements suggested a fear which changed to presumption and then to rumor and then to excitement. It was rumored that it had been asserted that the missing steamer had a number of cases of nitro-glycerine aboard, and buckets and chairs belonging to her had been found floating in the Caribbean Sea. These rumors are without foundation.

Mr Myers of Rogers, Myers & Co, agent for the line, assures us that the Grenadian having suffered severely in a storm in mid Atlantic two months ago put into Azores where she was abandoned, after passengers and crew were landed in safety.

Her nitro glycerine safely stored in the powder house was placed in a barge and anchored out in the bay.

FROM THE NORTH

Indian Hostilities on the Sound.

PORT STEILACOOM April 21.—Last Sunday night 17th inst a runner arrived at Fort Simcoe with an all night with an urgent request from Superintendent Waterman for 30 men and 2 howitzers to proceed immediately to Cape Flattery, as the Government property and the lives of employees were in imminent danger from hostile Indians. The muster having been already committed on Monday morning 16th inst started the detachment which on arriving at Neah Bay with 80 of the Indians and in a skirmish captured thirty of the ugliest rascals ever seen. who just now arrived in charge Corporal Walker. Four Klallam 26 men and 1 howitzer are still at the Bay against Waterer of Neah Bay Reservation.

PERSONAL.—Col R A Hawkins, late of Tennessee, arrived here by the Wilson on Saturday evening. He is one of the many East Tennessee who bore up so bravely against the tide of secession and rebellion which overwhelmed their State in 1861. During the war he commanded the Second Tennessee Cavalry. Two or three months ago he came from the East to California. Prior to his departure for this coast he did most effective service in several States in speaking for the Union party. We learn that it is his intention to stump this State for the Union ticket. The Union party will gladly welcome his aid in the present contest.

SENATOR WILLIAM M STEWART.—The Vancouver Register thus notices Senator William's late great speech:

"The whole speech is marked by wonderful logic, marching straight on to its inevitable conclusion. As becomes a grave Senator he did not stop to gather the flowers of rhetoric to please the fancy of a popular auditory, but uttered, from beginning to end statements of fact and principle which he linked so skillfully together as to constitute them a chain that no man can break."

British Columbia News

The Colonist of the 18th announces the successful laying of six miles of the submarine telegraph—from Fidalgo Island to Lopez Island. The Fearnaught commenced paying out at 10 A M on the 15th, and steamed without difficulty to Lopez Island. Several messages have been transmitted through the cable, and everything works well. The Fearnaught will immediately ship another portion, and the work will be pushed with all possible expedition until the entire cable is laid.

A man of some literary note, H N Lonby, at one time connected with the press at Victoria, committed suicide at that city on the 15th inst., by cutting his throat with a razor. He was labouring under a fit of delirium tremens.

The B C Tribune, the first number of which came to hand yesterday estimates that 1 500 or 2 000 men have already reached the Big Bend mines.

The total imports into the port of New Westminster for the quarter ending 25th March, 1866, amounted to $243 402 50 the largest items being dry goods $57,295, machinery, $29,219, flour $9 791 blankets, $9 311, boots and shoes $8,859, butter $8,524 spirits $8 450, tobacco, $8,285 hardware $8 184 bacon and hams $8,001 beef cattle $6 845 sugar, $5 770.

Jeremiah Gallighan a native of Ireland, was drowned at Nanaimo on the 13th inst.

Messrs Middlemiss and Boole arrived at Victoria on the 17th inst with tools and part of the material required for the construction of a steam wheel steamer for the Collins Telegraph Expedition, to be used in the navigation of the inland waters of British Columbia. The machinery will be sent up on a sailing vessel. The boat will be constructed at Freeport or Port Madison W T.

DR. PERRAULT is a Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and is the ONLY REGULAR BRADUATE who practices as a SPECIALIST in San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT will cure all who are afflicted with Nervous Debility Loss of Memory and Vigor etc resulting from indulgent habits contracted in youth, in excesses in maturity which produce constitutional debility and premature old age.

It is melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to disease owing to unskillful treatment and improper use of Mercury.

All cases of Gonorrhœa Gleet, Stricture Diseases of the Bladder, Gravel, Spermatorrhœa, and Impotency will be cured in a few days, without prevention from business.

To the Ladies.

Ladies suffering from Whites, Falling of the Womb, Suppression of the Menses, or Profuse Flowing, Costiveness Piles, Weakness of the Back, Pain in the Side, Head ache, Palpitation, and all other diseases to which the female system is subjected, will find prompt relief by addressing themselves to DR PERRAULT corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets. Private entrance on Sacramento street.

We thank in asking our ladies a plain statement of their case will be given whether curable or not. All cases taken under treatment warranted. No charges for advice. No poisons or harsh medicines to injure the constitution; no sinking sick to make well. Honest in our dealings; frank in our explanations, moderate in our charges. We do this investigation in order not to know everything nor to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense and to cure eight out of ten pronounced incurable.

We particularly request those who have tried this Doctor, and that scientific Physicians, boasted and advertised, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It will cost nothing, as consultation is free.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR PERRAULT, stating their case as minutely as possible, general habits of living occupation, etc. Letters to be addressed, J PERRAULT, M D corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 913 Post Office, San Francisco.

DR PERRAULT still retains the agency of DR. HOFF'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Their immense sale has established their reputation as the only safe and effectual remedy for all irregularities and obstructions in females, no matter from what cause. On receipt of five dollars, these pills will be sent by Mail or Express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. ap2d4p6m

THE CONSTANT MOVEMENTS —The success of Captain Sweetzer in his Colonial steamer navigation enterprises, the late developments in regard to the robbery of Wells Fargo, the successful business which has already sprung up from the operations of the Anchor Line, and the reasoning of Gardner advocates for a change in the affairs which have governed the commercial interests of the Atlantic Pacific coast, show that the people of California and Oregon are becoming alive to the importance of doing away with the combined monopolies of California, which hitherto have kept back the material development of all enterprises on the Pacific Slope. But a few short months ago it was considered to constitute for a business man in Oregon or California, to settle sentiments for sentiment's sake, and the only effectual power that could break the chain of his bondage to the prosperity of all classes, but in a very few months numerously, and those who dare get up in public meetings and express their true sentiments with regard to these things. The press of California, which was literally under the thumb of the monopolists, prior to the establishment of the American Flag, is now not so fully controlled by the arrant tyranny of the combined foreign nations, whose only object was the supreme control of all business relating to commercial affairs on the Pacific, and the practice of the most extortion from those whose necessities compelled them to patronize the old hulks that were employed at exorbitant rates, exclusively in the carrying business from Panama to British Columbia. We find to-day papers from San Francisco that characterize these combinations as "the steamship monopolists," "which at one period appeared to threaten the entire control of the freight business of this coast," and at the same time exact rates which no other enterprise would warrant in this country. These facts, to be brief, how can people do otherwise than thank the measures inaugurated for their relief? The increasing prosperity of Oregon is attributed to the introduction of the "Anchor Line," the representative ship of which—now in port. We have expressed a wish for two years that a first class opposition line be established between Portland and San Francisco, and now that we have the reality of seeing our wishes gratified we intend to urge our people, as strenuously as possible, to the support of the opposition, notwithstanding whatever extreme force may be brought to bear to compel us to succumb to the dictates of the monster extortionists. That the old blood monopolists have hunted down to the extreme, by hireling bullies and shoulder strikers, every one who has dared to oppose them in the State of California in the past few years, is a patent fact, but we have never secured such deep root in Oregon as will enable their operations to prosper with that unlimited extortion here. They will learn to the contrary at once, without a repetition of the acts of last week. A reporter of this paper that a few days ago we gave an account of the earnings of the Montana to the effect that was by now losing the money of her owners. We every day read new evidences which go to prove to the truth of the statements that she can not, and will not be bought off by the combined monopolists. Up to this time, the permanent class of passengers by the Montana has been gradually increasing, until, for the last, nearly three-fourth of the shipping list may be set down as sure for the Anchor Line. At first, shippers appeared to lack the nerve to give their patronage to the opposition, fearful that the old line might not be permanently established, and that in case it failed, they would be subjected to much worse treatment than before. The disposition prevailing itself now, will be to finally discard the old line entirely. On the present trip of the Montana there is a large number of Oregonians as passengers, and a large list of freight. The following, regarding the trip of the ship, has been handed us for publication:

On Board Steamship Montana,
April 21st, 1866.

DEAR SIR: We, the passengers on board the steamship Montana, feel that the kind treatment which we have received while passengers, from Captain Kelly and the officers, deserves some acknowledgement in return. It is therefore

Resolved, That we, the undersigned passengers, tender our thanks to Captain Kelly and subordinate officers for the kindness shown us while on board the steamship, and we hereby recommend the Anchor Line to the traveling public, as being well worthy their patronage.

C Ogden, S Kellogg, Mrs. F Kellogg, Col R A Hawkins, J H Bolter, Chas Palmer, John D Bennett, Wm S Barker, Mrs Thos. K Burns, J H Burns, J D Welsh, John Hunt, Mrs. M Tibbits and family, Mrs C Beaklan, L C Tibbits, Wm. Wright, E H Gerdler, L W Hiatt, E B Ford, J E Ford, Mrs. G J C Johnson, W A Seagin, Oliver Marony and family, James Heath, Miss Byrne, H W Hyman, Mrs. Dr. F W Mc——, A Wakefield, Geo H Atchison, Mrs. J E Waldyn, Miss Jennie Burton Sophia Burbie, J W Hand, W Sproul, Asa Thompson, C F Kvle, J H Jones, J N Shattuck, Charles Friedrich, Mrs. Mary Chalmsbee, Sarah Durbin, W Bird, S Hamilton, J W Helen, R Prag, D Workman, John Adler, Thos. Whitehead, A Weber, Samuel Hughs, Isaac Hughs, W Smith, Phillip Stich, Fred Congdon, Geo B Hall, A D S Silver, Robt Leffler, and 50 others.

THE FROST.—It is generally considered in some parts of this coast that nothing good can come out of Oregon, and that every person, incorporation or company in the State, who undertake the development of the resources of our mountains, must end up into bankruptcy without assets to pay off their liabilities. As an act to the contrary, we have seen a stand of lumber from the Rocky ledge, within a few days last week we observed a specimen which is to cut over $6,000 as the result of a single chop of the mill. On Saturday another brick of like character, to sell at over $7,000, was made in this city from a second clean up of the same mill. The mill, we understand, is running day and nightly, using ten stamps.

THE COURT.—J. J. HOFFMAN, Judge, April 21st, 1866. The two Chinamen Tom Sing and Sung Sing, charged with the crime of committing the skin walk on Washington street, were brought up for their appearances, but forfeited the bail of $50 each, without a repetition of the acts of last week. Chester, late of San Francisco, was found guilty of petty thieving and sent to jail for thirty days. Mike Fay, a Celt by nation, was arrested on Saturday last, on his arrival from San Francisco, on a charge of having stolen a watch of her having stolen from Miss Riley, but no money was found about her person, nor her baggage. The examination will take place to-day. Langley, an old offender, and Charles Adams, will be required to appear this morning for trial.

BIG LIES.—Whilst at Oregon City on Saturday we were informed that the P. T Company had bought the claim above the Falls, and would not, therefore, proceed with the building of the one projected at Cascade. Well, this to be the fact, though we cannot say so positively. The next enterprise of this Company ought to be the erection of a suitable wharf at Portland, and thereby from their well known energy, that they will undoubtedly make number one landing place of their line.

THE MONTANA.—The steamer John H Couch, Captain Shaw, arrived yesterday afternoon from Astoria, having in tow the bark Helen W. Almy, as will be seen by our shipping report. The barks A. A. Eldridge, Wilson, and Jane A. Falkenburg, for San Francisco, will be towed out on Saturday morning, waiting for the opposition tug to get to sea. The barks W. B. Bourne and Mikado will be towed out early in the week. The latter may possibly be ready for sea to-day.

THE STEAMER.—The commencement exercises of the Portland Collegiate Institute, will occur on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, closing with an exhibition on Thursday. Rev. E. Cookson will address the classes on Tuesday, and Rev. O. P. Atkinson and Prof Wiley will address the Society on Wednesday. In case the roads become impassable, the exercises will be held at the Academy of Music.

THE MONTANA'S LAUNCH THIS EVENING.—Notice is given in this paper that Col Hawkins, of Tennessee, will address the M. E. Church this evening. The lecture will doubtless prove a most interesting one. The people of Portland now have the rare opportunity of hearing a Southern man tell of the "war as it was," and not as it is." We bespeak for Colonel Hawkins a full audience to-night.

THE OUT.—There were some thoughts that the new steamers would crush out the packets, but we imagine that all vessels coming to our wharves, come with what freight they want to carry on the inward voyage. The only complaint of is the lack of freight offering on return trips. The bark at present in port left the last loading at San Francisco for Portland.

GOOD NEWS.—Our friends Bloom & Mosselwitz, of the New York store, 107 Front street, have received a full line of the foreign and domestic merchandize line, and in addition to their extensive stock to the public make the fact this morning in our advertising columns. Give them a call.

FIRE ON BLOCK.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Company have materially reduced the freight on flour to Lewiston, White Bluffs, and Lewiston as will be seen by advertisement. We are in hope this will act as a check on the market, which is very much over done with a limited demand.

ACCIDENT.—A wagon driven along Front street by a man named Harrold, in bounding over the rough pavement on Saturday was put down last year struck into a rut with sufficient force to throw Harrold out, and in his fall he pretty badly on Saturday last.

THE MAY FESTIVAL.—The Scalan Guards have decided to celebrate May 1st, as the time for their festival. The grounds selected are in the vicinity of Springville, and the Female Troupe has been chartered, and the Military band engaged for the occasion.

CHURCH.—We understand the 26th, Thursday next, will be appropriately celebrated by the independent order of Odd Fellows, by an excursion. The fraternity at Oregon City will join the fraternity here, and both will go to Vancouver.

DISPLEASED.—The Ortolan will leave this port to-morrow morning, as advertised, for San Francisco instead of this evening, as at first announced.

THE MONTANA.—The steamship Montana will sail for San Francisco on Wednesday afternoon. Treasure will be taken at one quarter of 1 per cent.

WE AGAIN publish the remainder of Judge Williams' speech to-morrow.

DON'T BELIEVE THEM.—If any one tell you that they have a better remedy for Coughs and Colds than the "Wistar Hall's Pulmonary Balsam, don't believe it. There is no better remedy, as any one who has used it can testify.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandize, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD'S CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of it consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice

Details of the Great Explosion

The main facts of the recent terrible explosion in San Francisco, have been telegraphed substantially as we find them in the San Francisco papers. There are however some additional details which we clip from the Mail and present below

ORIGIN OF THE DISASTER

"What has exploded?" was naturally the first question asked by everybody before it was known that any had exploded. It was known that the boiler in Bell's lab ratory, in the rear of the Assay Office, was soon found that no boiler was ever there. "Then it must have been stored in the yard?" It was found that there were no casks in quantity anywhere in the vicinity. "The boiler in the Union Club House kitchen!" This was accepted as the solution of the question for an hour or more, but was then disproved. "Nitro glycerine" suggested one who had noticed the facts that there was slight smoke or flame in the air after the explosion but a strong gaseous smell, and that nothing was burning, and no marks of hot water were any where to be seen. This solution of the question—which proved to be the right one—was accepted at once almost instinctively and the conviction that such was the cause of the dreadful catastrophe became seated in all minds. It was soon ascertained that the house of Wells, Fargo & Co., who are the freight agents for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, received by the steamer Sacramento, on her late trip from Panama, forty cases of nitr glycerine, which reached the 28th ult from Europe. Also two cases of the same article, but in larger sized boxes than the first one signalized. These boxes were marked plainly, "Nitro glycerine."

SCENE FROM THE STREET

On the street, the scene presented to the spectator was only less startling and frightful than that inside. In the auction rooms of Messrs. Cobb & Sinton, on the east side of Montgomery street, lay a human brain, almost intact, no other fragments of the body near it. On the roof of a building west of Bell's assay office, fragments of flesh were found.

A piece of human spine was blown over the buildings on the east side of Montgomery street and was picked up in front of Squarra's, on Loidesdorff street.

A piece of a skull was lying on California street, east of Leidesdorff with other fragments of human remains, and a human arm struck the third story window of the building occupied by Squarra.

Men with blanched faces and quivering lips were asking after acquaintances, brothers, fathers, sons; woman, with agony past expression depicted on their faces, were crowding against the ropes which had been stretched by the police above the side-walks on both sides of the shattered buildings, asking with earnestness, all the more terrible for the manifest effort made to subdue it for tidings of loved ones they might never look upon in life again. A silence, born of horror and sympathy, prevailed through all the vast throng around.

A STATEMENT ABOUT THE EXPLOSION.

From the servant of G. W. Bell we glean the following information in regard to the fatal explosion. Mr Bell had given him orders to have his horse saddled and ready at the side door, which led into the yard of Wells, Fargo & Co., at about one o'clock, as he was en route for Petaluma. Mr. Bell left his office, came into the yard to mount his horse, the servant still having him by the head, only a few feet from where four men were standing around a box examining it. Two of them were supposed to be Mr. Havens, of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and Mr. Frank Webster, of Wells, Fargo & Company, the other two being workmen, one of whom had a hammer or hatchet in his hand, and the other what seemed to be an iron claw chisel. The wooden cover of the case had just been forced off, when one of the gentlemen spoke to Mr. Bell, (he being a chemist) as if to ask his opinion of the damage. Mr. Bell then turned to his servant, and remarked that he might go on to the boat, and he would overtake him in a moment, and following orders he turned the horse, and led him toward the gateway on California street. As he turned from the party, the impression of the last look was that they were going on with the investigation. He was not positive that they were other smaller cases in the larger one, but thinks they continued to use their tools to get at the contents of the box. The latter was apparently about the size of an ordinary trunk, made neatly of white pine boards. As the servant passed out of the gate, and was crossing the sidewalk, he felt the shock of the explosion, and was struck in the back of the head with a flying missile, which knocked him forward, breaking his hold on the horse. The animal was also hit with a splinter, but was not much hurt.

This person was about the last living man who saw the men and the case before the fatal explosion.

THE SEARCH FOR THE DEAD, WOUNDED AND DYING.

The uncertainty as to the cause of the explosion did not deter the search for the injured, which commenced long before the dust, which was raised by the falling walls, had subsided. The first point of investigation was the ruins of the brick building on the west side of the area, under which it was evident from the cries and moans of distress a number of sufferers were buried. Among the first who reached the area upon the explosion, were J. B. Badger, R. Weatherbee and A. Austin. They made their way directly to the west side of the area, where three bodies lay together, and, with the assistance of a number of other gentlemen, commenced searching for signs of life. The bodies, not recognized, were quickly ascertained to be lifeless; the third, which lay literally underneath the others, proved on examination to be that of our lamented fellow-townsman, Garrett W. Bell, Assayer, and member of the Board of Supervisors for the Eighth District. Mr. Bell's features were found to be sadly mutilated, and his clothing almost torn off, but he still breathed, although insensible. He was removed to the Express-office of Wells, Fargo & Co., where he soon expired. Meantime, the search went on, hundreds taking part from time to time in the mournful work. Capt. Cox, of the Pacific Mail Co's line, who was in the building at the time of the explosion, sent at once for a gang of stevedores from the Mail Co.'s wharf, to aid the firemen, who were working gallantly under the Chief Engineer Scannell and Ex-Chief Nuttman, and the work of exhumation was thenceforward carried on systematically, until far into the evening, when it was ascertained that no more dead or wounded were to be found. Broken walls were cleared away, and the mass of bricks and rubbish where the Union Club House kitchen had stood, beneath which the larger number of sufferers were buried, was removed piece by piece. As the mangled victims were brought out one after another and conveyed away on stretchers or in carriages, the scene was indescribably mournful and impressive. Such another we hope never to be compelled to look upon again.

James B. Nutman, formerly Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, was standing on Montgomery street, near Sacramento, when he felt the shock, and started for the direction of the sound, along Montgomery street, meeting affrighted people running towards Sacramento street. On reaching California street, the dust directed him up towards Kearney street, and at the gateway of Wells, Fargo & Co. he found a number of persons looking in the yard, and the scene of the disaster. Dashing into the yard he met a man coming out, clambering over the ruins, with both arms bleeding. He seized him and passed him over to others behind him, the man exclaiming not to take hold of his hands. Stepping further over the debris, he saw a man lying on his face, the clothing torn off his body and his back badly lacerated, but the voice of a living being further on calling for help he passed on and assisted, with others who had arrived, to get him out. A Chinaman, servant f the Club, came from amid the ruin bleeding and wounded and was passed out. A number of citizens, among whom were A. Austin, Henry Wetherbee, Wm. Smith, special policeman, Mr Soaring, Mr. J. B. Badger, Mr. Rolck, of the P. M S. S. Co., and others whose names are not recollected, went to work and got several bodies, among whom were Mr. G. W. Bell and Samuel Knight. The latter was supposed to have been instantly killed.

FORCE OF THE EXPLOSION, AND MINOR DETAILS OF THE CATASTROPHE

We are informed by a friend who had entered the door of the Letter Delivery side of the Express office, just before the explosion, for the purpose of examining the letter list, and had proceeded about three steps inward, that there were a group of not to exceed half a dozen persons engaged in looking over the lists. He did not notice the clerks, his attention being entirely directed to the examination of the books containing the letter lists. When the explosion occurred, it sounded to him similar to an immense rocket, and did not appear to resemble that of gunpowder or a steam boiler. Instantaneously he found himself in the middle of the street, landing on his feet, with the fragments of the ruined buildings—bricks, mortar, glass and slivers of timber raining a torrent around him. Imagining the affair to be a recurrence of the shock of an earthquake, he kept the middle of the street and ran as far as Pine street, escaping entirely uninjured. His recollection of the sound is clear and distinct, that it proceeded from the right of the rear portion of the building, as indicated by the other accounts.

Immediately after the explosion, the concussion breaking all the glass in the vicinity the latter, in its descent in fine particles, resembled a fall of snow and passers by had to shield their eyes.

Half dollars were found bent, and as if to illustrate the terrific power of the explosive material, on the body of the figure of one, the Goddess of Liberty was indented with the word "America" from the obverse side of the coin.

A knife and fork from the Club, fell through Barry & Patten's sky light.

All the windows in Collins' were broken, but the large mirror escaped harm.

At the drug store of Keith & Co., on Montgomery, near Clay, a terrible spectacle was presented for some time after the explosion as the injured men, one after an ther were brought in for medical relief. Among the injured brought there, were Frederick Rust or Le Roy, Frederick Morris, workman for Bell & Co. — Elliott, J. F. Agey, of Wells Fargo & Co., who was badly cut in the face, Mr Blum, the clothing dealer and others. A crowd surrounded the door and blocked up the side walk, but Mr N. Castle, the Alta carrier, volunteered to attend the door and keep the room clear for the surgeons in attendance. The following surgeons were in attendance in the store when being called to the sufferers. Drs Bourgeaud, Murphy, Green, Trask, Cole, Dean Elliott and others. As fast as the wounds were dressed, the sufferers were sent to their homes or to the Hospital as the case might be.

Among those most entitled to credit for their exertions in rescuing the wounded and removing the dead, there were many who so numbered as not give not knowing them—were Matthew Sonring, ex Foreman of No. 11, Samuel Wilkinson of No 11, "Coke," of the Pacific Mail Company's Office, formerly a member of No 6, John L. Durkee, Fire Marshal, Chief Engineer Scannel, Wm Smith, Special Officer, and a number of regular Police Officers and private gentlemen.

The new two and a half story brick building of the Spring Valley Water Works Co., on California street, the next above Bell's assay office, was moved some two or three inches from the line of its foundation, and a glazier named Hopkins, at work under the skylight, was carried upwards upon the roof to a distance of twenty feet. He escaped with a slight scratch on one of his legs.

The smoke or light yellowish vapor which arises from the explosion, ascended hundreds of feet into the air like the vapor from the crater of a volcano, and was dissipated very much more rapidly than powder smoke, disappearing very quickly. It was noticed that the bodies of none of the victims seemed to be blackened as if by powder burns or being scalded by steam, but all appeared as if struck by lightning. Some of the observers say there were two explosions almost simultaneous, but we heard but a single report.

Glass was broken as far off as Stockton street on the west, Sutter street on the south, Washington on the north, and Front on the east. Within a fall block in any direction, from the focus of the explosion, hardly a whole pane of glass is left.

A large number of gentlemen were at lunch in the dining hall of the Union Club, immediately north of the kitchen, the doors and windows of which were blown to atoms. They were covered with fragments of the glass, splinters, etc., etc., but, wonderful to tell, none were killed, and but three or four slightly hurt.

The clerk sat at his desk in the office amid a perfect wreck of timbers and furniture, entirely unharmed, while billiard tables were crushed beside him, and a portion of the roof fell within reach of his arm. We could give a column of hair breadth escapes, and still not fall the half we have heard narrated. The wonder is, not that so many were killed or wounded, but that so many escaped unharmed who were exposed to the shock.

THE EXPLOSION COMPARED WITH THAT AT THE WYOMING HOTEL, NEW YORK.

A gentleman who was within three squares of the nitro glycerine explosion at the Wyoming Hotel, Greenwich street, New York, last year, was in the Occidental Hotel at the time of the disaster. He says his first thought yesterday was that a steamer had fired her gun, though the sound seemed louder and sharper than the report of a steamer's artillery. Compared with the explosion in New York, the sound was much the same. The report of the Wyoming Hotel explosion was distinctly heard in Brooklyn, more than three miles from the scene of the disaster, while the guns on the steamers in New York Harbor are rarely audible at so great a distance. The report had a clear, ringing sound, like that of a field piece, though it was heavy enough for a ship's gun of larger calibre. Nearly all the glass on both sides of Greenwich street, along the square where the Wyoming Hotel stands, was broken, hardly a pane being left. In the front of the hotel all the glass was driven inwards, the front door was torn from its hinges, and the sash of some of the windows were wrenched off as if they had been struck with an axe. Hardly a mirror in the building was left unbroken, and nearly every door was burst open. Men who were standing in their rooms at the time were thrown to the floor by the force of the concussion. The walls of the hotel were not injured, but everything movenable or fragile was more or less injured.

The explosive matter on that occasion was nitro-glycerine, though the quantity was not known. A German, who arrived at the hotel a few weeks before, had left a box about two feet square, on taking away the rest of his baggage, and this box was laying in the baggage-room for some time. The porters and some of the habitues of the hotel used to rest their feet upon the box while blacking their boots, no one having any suspicion of its character. On the morning of the explosion an individual, while blacking his boots, noticed that some liquid was running from the box and saturating the floor. Two porters then took the box and carried it to the edge of the side walk. As they reached the side-walk and dropped their burden, a yellowish flame burst from the box, and the explosion followed three or four seconds later. No one was killed instantly; one person died of his wounds, and a half-dozen more were more or less injured. Had the explosion occurred in the hotel, it was thought the building would have been destroyed. Glass was broken nearly two squares away, showing that the force of the explosion was in all directions. Persons four or five squares distant felt the concussion in the air.

The German, on being found, said the box was given to him in Bremen to bring to America and "make something out of it." He was told it contained essential oils, but never examined it. He kept it in his berth on the passage across, and left it at the hotel, as above stated. He said he had no suspicion that the box was dangerous, or he never would have slept with it in the passage of the Atlantic. Letters subsequently received from Germany proved that the substance was nitro-glycerine, and that the German knew something of its character, though he was not fully informed concerning it.

Nitro-glycerine is manufactured in Sweden and Germany, for blasting and other purposes, where the most powerful explosion is required. Its inventor established a factory for its manufacture in Sweden, which was in operation only a few months when it blew up, killing every person in the building, including the brother of the inventor.

EXPLANATORY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16, 1866.

EDITORS ALTA:—Rumors having been circulated that the explosion which took place to day, in the rear of Wells, Fargo and Co.'s Express Office, has been caused by some of our lately received blasting oil, called Nitro-Glycerine, or Glonoin, we beg to state that the only shipment which has been received by us, the only agents for Nobel's blasting oil, was sent entirely, on arrival, direct to Messrs. Treadwell & Co.'s warehouse, on the Potrero. The quantity received was forty cases, of which three cases were shipped about ten days ago to Dutch Flat, to be tried and experimented with by the engineers of the Central Pacific Railroad, a report of whom, stating all trials a perfect success, we received from Col Hyde, who conducted the same, and herewith transmit to you. Not a pound, besides the three cases received at Dutch Flat, has to this moment left the powder warehouse, nor has the smallest quantity of our blasting oil been sold or given away, except three bottles used by us in private trials at the Potrero.

What the cause of the explosion was we certainly cannot say, but we do not believe it was any blasting oil at all, as we cannot understand that other persons should have received any—we being Mr. Nobel's sole agents.

To allay the general fear, which this explosion odium, in regard to blasting oil, we will state that in a few days public trials will be made to prove its great power, as also the difficulty of exploding the same except by Nobel's patent igniters and percussion caps, or by a heat of at least 360 deg Fahr.

We remain gentlemen, your ob't serv'ts,

BADGNANT NEILSEN & Co

BIG BEND.—A passenger from Portland by the schooner Pacific informs us that Big Bend is "all the rage" there. Encouraging private letters from friends at the diggings continue to be received by the Portlanders and create much excitement.—Victoria Chronicle.

The information which this "passenger" furnishes the Chronicle will be news here. Portland has heard nothing of Big Bend except through the absurd, exaggerated, fifth hand reports which pass from one "reliable miner" to another, until they are finally sent here by telegraph, the Victorians footing the bill.

The Pacific Tribune says that the Bellingham Bay Coal Mining Company has sold out all its interests for $800,000 to the California Steam Navigation Company, also, that R. V. Peabody, Esq., has sold his donation claim on Bellingham Bay to the same parties for $20,000.

Washington Territory Items

The Puget Sound Semi Weekly says that President Barnard has tendered his resignation as President of the University, which has been accepted by the the Board of Regents. Rev. Gideon F. Whitworth at present Deputy Collector of Customs for the District of Puget Sound, has been appointed as the successor of President Barnard.

Three privates, Francis Brown, — McIntyre and Robert Buttersby, of the 14th United States Infantry, deserted a few days ago from Fort Steilacoom. A reward of $50 each has been offered for their apprehension.

A correspondent of the Semi Weekly writes:

On Wednesday last ex Mr. Lukbonner, Indian agent of the Lummi Reservation, was on his way to Seattle, a few miles below the Tulalip Reservation his attention was attracted by an unusual number of Indians collected upon the shore. His curiosity being excited, he landed to see what they were about. They were a large number of the Tulalip Indians, who had captured a canoe load of Hydah Indians, from Queen Charlotte's Island consisting of 4 squaws 7 klootchmen and 3 children. Two of the klootchmen were half breeds. They had stripped them of everything, even of the clothes on their backs, and distributed the klootchmen and children among the Chiefs for slaves, and, having held a council, and decided to kill the squaws, were in the act of slaying their helpless victims when Mr. L. fortunately made his appearance. It says that never in his life has he seen such a manifestation of joy as was shown on his liberating the prisoners. It was some time before he got them to desist from hugging and kissing him and crying. They would even fall down and kiss his boots. Recovering what he could from the captors, Mr. F took the rescued Indians to the Tulalip Reservation. On arriving and making the facts known, the steamer Gem, Capt. Hill, happening to be there at the time, by order of A. R. Elder, Indian agent, and in charge of Mr. Henry Hale, 2d Clerk in the Indian Department at Olympia, and accompanied by Messrs. Hindbaugh, Finkbonner, N. Crosby and Cleal, was dispatched to arrest, if possible, the ringleaders, who are supposed to be the two Indians who murdered Carter on the Skomish a few years ago. Night overtaking the party, they returned, but were unable to find the savages.

We are informed by Capt. Perkins, of the schooner Crosby, that Mr. Middleton, who superintended the building of the steamer George T. Wright, intends building a new boat at Port Ludlow.

The schooner Crosby made the trip from Cape Disappointment Light to Port Angelos in thirty hours. She will proceed hence to Portland, laden with lumber.

A few days ago Mr. H. A. Webster, Indian Agent at Neah Bay arrested an Indian engaged in the murder committed in that neighborhood last fall, and placed him on board a schooner, probably the Wexter, for safe keeping. The Indians marshalled their braves and liberated the arrested Indian, threatening Mr Webster with serious bodily injury if he attempted to interfere. Mr. Webster immediately made the facts known at Olympia, and on Monday a detachment of soldiers went down by the Eliza Anderson from Port Steilacoom for the purpose of settling the disturbance.

CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT.—The New York Nation of March 8th has the following good bit:

The week has been one of comparative calm. The President has blown out little blast against the radicals, but the radicals maintain a masterly silence. In the meantime the Democratic journals are in agony, lest by some unhappy combination of circumstances the quarrel should pass over without further consequences. The Chicago Times proposes for Johnson's consideration the arrest of Sumner, Stevens and Phillips, and the forcible dissolution of Congress. The New York Times, in a philosophical discussion of the matter, has arrived at the conclusion that somebody must yield that the President cannot be expected to yield, inasmuch as he is unwilling to yield, and that therefore Congress must do so. We propose that a commission, composed of conservative politicians, be framed to inquire by what authority Congress meddles in the Government of the country at all. If we may judge by some of the articles and speeches we read, both Houses and Senate are sitting in Washington in consequence of some inscrutable mistake, Johnson being charged with the sole management of the national affairs in virtue of his accidental accession to the Presidential chair. It might be well, however, in any event, to let Congress linger on for the present, inasmuch as the disposition of the members might injure the public credit. And we confess, for our part, we cannot wholly divest ourselves of the conviction that even if Johnson be not allowed to do exactly as he pleases, the national existence may, by a great effort on the part of the people, be still protracted. The Government was, no doubt, a very poor affair until he took charge of it, but still it lived, and, we flatter ourselves, will continue to do so even after he has retired. We doubt very much whether he will even do that whimpering over its mangled remains which he promised his hearers in Washington a fortnight ago.

COURT MARTIAL.—'Tis stated on good authority that a Board of Army Officers has been detailed to convene at Fort Boise, in Idaho Territory, at an early day, to investigate certain charges preferred against Captain William B Hughes, Quartermaster, U. S. Army, on duty in the Military District of California. Captain H (a West Point graduate) has been on the Pacific coast since 1857, serving most of the time as Captain in the 9th U. S. Infantry, up in Oregon and Idaho. The charge alleged against him is to the effect that he is largely interested in "business on the outside," with parties in the Boise country. This officer left here on Saturday, the 14th instant, by the steamer Orizaba for Portland, Oregon.—S. F. Flag, 16th.

SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL.—A PATENT APPLIED FOR.—Mr. HEINDER has invented an article by which he can take any number of Head Pictures on the same plate without the subject getting up from the chair, can get different positions of the face and all sizes of heads, can put a half dozen heads on the space of a half dollar, can put on a whole family of heads on a common sized card, and will sell pictured cheaper than any other Gallery on this coast. Has the process for taking the new and beautiful style picture called the Porcelain or Sun Pearl, so much talked of in San Francisco, also has engaged a man from that place who has been making those pictures in San Francisco.

Mr H is now prepared to do as good work and in as great variety of style as any Gallery in Portland. Orders for full portrait size of photograph will be promptly attended to. ap16d1p2f
